

The Acoustic Wedding Singer

Beautiful and intimate music for weddings and events

Daniel is a professional acoustic guitarist and singer who has performed around the UK for 10 years. He offers a personal and intimate touch to your wedding day playing a fantastic variety of songs live. He performs in the church, as you walk down the aisle, at your reception, during your meal or even a requested song for your first dance.

With excellent vocals and the warming sound of an acoustic guitar Daniel will ensure that your wedding day is unique to you playing when you want, with your own requested music, to offer a stylish, memorable and special day.

Quotes from the clients

"It made the day feel extra special"

Adrian and Summer Jones

Grantham 2008

"It was amazing and it felt personal to us"

Mike and Georgia Richardson

Stamford 2007

Experience.....

10 years of singing and 20 years of guitar experience from a background of teaching music. With the experience of playing to large audiences in weddings, functions and cooperate events and the knowledge of a massive catalogue of acoustic songs.

Flexibility.....

Flexibility to be able to accommodate your event where ever it is, whatever size the venue and whenever you require - music at your wedding breakfast and then later at the reception. Whatever your preference it can be accommodated.